CHRYSANTHEMUMS. These are undoubtedly the most valuable and the most showy fall-blooming perennials. Coming as they do just when the other garden flowers are over, Chrysanthemums brighten the dark fall days and bring a promise of another season yet to come. Their culture is very easy. They prefer a good rich soil, which may be obtained by adding a well-balanced commercial fertilizer to any garden soil. The plants are set out in May. Pinching them back in June and again in late July will make them bushy and encourage more bloom. A second feeding of fertilizer in late July is advisable. Great armfuls of flowers for home decoration will be your reward.

HERBS

These were considered a very necessary part of the garden in olden times. To this day many remedies are concocted from herbs, and most good cooks use them discriminately. If you can manage to have a small herb garden close to the kitchen door, you will no doubt get a lot of pleasure from seeing what you can do with these very useful plants.

ROSEMARY (Rosmarinus officinalis). Fragrant leaves scent potpourris.

SAGE (Salvia officinalis). Dried leaves season meats, sausages, stuffings, and cheese.

SAVORY, WINTER (Satureia montana). Leaves season meats, sausages, vegetable dishes and certain liqueurs. An excellent plant for edging borders.

SPEARMINT (Mentha spicata). Fresh leaves used to flavor sauces and iced drinks, particularly juleps.

SWEET MARJORAM (Origanum Majorana). Fresh leaves season sausages, vegetable dishes and salads or scent potpourris.

TARRAGON, EPICURE. Used in salads and in the making of vinegar. Delicious in jello and fruit cups.
